

01 December 2021

All ICSD Members

Dear Member,

We have the pleasure and honor of inviting your National Deaf Sports Federation to take part in the 24th Summer Deaflympics, from 01-15 May 2022. This event will be held in Caxias do Sul, Brazil. During the ICSD Extraordinary Congress in Lausanne, Switzerland on 28-29 November 2021, the Brazil Deaf Sports Federation (CBDS) has made the decision to have Caxias do Sul be the host city for the Summer Deaflympics 2022.

The sports program at the 24th Summer Deaflympics will include the following:

Athletics (men & women)	Mountain Bike (men & women)
Badminton (men & women)	Orienteering (men & women)
Basketball (men & women)	Shooting (men & women)
Beach Volleyball (men & women)	Swimming (men & women)
Bowling (men & women)	Table Tennis (men & women)
Cycling Road (men & women)	Taekwondo (men & women)
Football (men & women)	Tennis (men & women)
Golf (men & women)	Volleyball (men & women)
Handball (men & women)	Wrestling Greco-Roman (men)
Judo (men & women)	Wrestling Freestyle (men)
Karate (men & women)

The 24th Summer Deaflympics is very significant event. You can find all related documents at <https://www.deaflympics.com/games/2022-s>. Costs related to travel and accommodation will be the responsibility of your National Deaf Sports Federation. For more details regarding the Summer Deaflympics, go to <https://www.deaflympics2021.com/>

We look forward to having you come down to Caxias do Sul for the 24th Summer Deaflympics.

Sincerely,

Gustavo PERAZZOLO

President
International Committee of Sports for the Deaf